The Secret is Revealed at NSBSG

The NSBSG held a special event this past Wednesday, with the DVD presentation of the Secret.

Featuring some of the leading educators, philosophers, and psychologists, the Secret was explained to a full room of 50+ attendees at the Bella Candela restaurant.

Explaining the "Laws of Attraction", the film and featured presenters showed how visualization, raised to a higher level of consciousness can help bring about change, and enable one to reach their deep-seated goals.

Starting from a premise that we are all made of the same atomic energy as all other objects in the Universe, our thoughts are inexorably connected, and using the analogy of the Genie in the bottle, "...your wish is (my) command".

The thoughts you have sends energy into the Universe, which in turn aligns itself to make your thoughts possible. The corollary is, if you think you're going to have a bad day, you probably already are.

Most people ask for less debt, but all they get is more debt, because debt is foremost in their mind; instead, they should ask for abundance.

The three key resources to the Laws of Attraction are:

1. Ask – ask the Universe for what you really want
2. Believe – have faith /belief that this want is yours to have, and that it will come your way.
3. Receive – Live the outcome in your mind as if you already have it, feel the joy, or relief you will experience when your wish is fulfilled.

The secret taught us that it's more than just wishes washing dishes, as Walt Whitman put it, but changing how you think, and the way you feel when asking the Universe for your wants. It's about experiencing the joy, and creating energy that brings joy from wish fulfillment.

One simple experiment by a presenter showed the power of creating positive thinking and visualization.

This presenter went on to describe how over time he used these visualization techniques to, of all things, find a good parking spot. Over successive weeks and months, he visualized the perfect parking spot, and found that 95% of the time he found it right away, and the other 3% of the time he had to wait only for a minute or two while someone pulled out.

The power of such visualization and wish fulfillment could not have been more keenly brought forth, leaving one only to imagine, that with time, patience, and attainable, reachable goals, what endless possibilities can arise for anyone looking to change their life.

Message from the President:

Dear NSBSG Members and Friends,

We are so pleased you could attend our special meeting today and our screening of the fabulous inspirational movie The Secret.

What a great way to end 2006 and begin 2007!

We had a total of almost 60 people in attendance, all of whom I know fit with our beliefs in strong business connections and positive support of each other's enterprises. Experiencing that movie simply reinforces the fact that we are on the right course.

I would like to thank Alvaro Peralta, owner of Bella Candela (www.bellacandela.com) and our gracious and generous host today (great food Al!), Kevin Middleton of Mountain Event Productions and Cam McLeod of Angel Restoration for working together to make today's event so successful. A big thank you as well goes to our NSBSG Vice President Len Macht and Secretary Norman Accipiter for their organizational help.

NSBSG is a group dedicated to helping each and every one of its members make their business more successful. We do this through personal development, commercial camaraderie and direct referrals of business to each other.

We also mastermind in order to help our members' businesses flourish and grow.

Thanks to all of you for being a part of this special event today, which was organized for this purpose. We valued your presence.

Members, see you at our Christmas Party beginning at about 6:30 PM on the 20th at (where else?) Bella Candela.

To our guests, do drop by again as we resume meetings January 3rd, 2007. We'd love to see you again.

A wonderful Festive Season to you all!

Successfully,

Neil
